

I oppose the cross-ownership of broadcast stations and newspapers. The free flow of information necessary to the health of our democracy is infinitely more important than any profit derived by monopolizing mass media. The current situation is unhealthy and should be fixed, what you propose to discuss on Monday is reprehensible.